Dinosaur Day!

November 22nd

Third grade students will be able to wear their favorite dinosaur SHIRT on Dinosaur Day. Students must wear dress code pants and no masks, costumes, or face paint is allowed. We look forward to seeing some DINO-MITE outfits!

What we are learning:

Math: I can use division within 100 to solve word problems in situations involving equal groups, arrays, and number lines by using drawings and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.

Science: I can obtain, evaluate, and communicate information on how fossils provide evidence of organisms that lived long ago.

ELA: I can use context clues to understand unfamiliar words in a story. I can identify and write complex sentences. I can write my opinion on a topic and support it with details.

Social Studies: I can explain and describe the Native American Regions in North America
